ZONING ADVISORY COMMITTEE VACANCIES

The Planning Board is seeking residents interested in serving on the Zoning Advisory Committee (ZAC) in varying capacities as outlined below. The purpose of the ZAC is to review and develop proposals for zoning bylaw and zoning map amendments, and to make recommendations to the Planning Board in preparation for Annual Town Meeting. The Board is looking for residents committed to addressing various zoning related topics in depth, and committed to attending regular evening meetings year round.

The following positions on the Zoning Advisory Committee are open and available. All appointees must be a resident of Hopkinton.

- 5 at large members (3 members to serve a two year term, 2 members to serve a one year term)
- 1 member from the Chamber of Commerce to serve a one year term
- 1 member from the Conservation Commission to serve a one year term
- 1 member from the Board of Appeals to serve a one year term
- 1 member from the Planning Board to serve a one year term
- 5 non-voting associate members to serve a one year term

The Planning Board is looking forward to appointing an energized and diverse field of applicants that may be new to government or new to Hopkinton and also those with deep ties to the community, as well as those representing varied parts of Town and different demographic constituency groups. Appointments will be made at the Planning Board meeting on August 27, 2018 and applicants are highly encouraged to attend.

Those interested in applying should send a letter of interest to Georgia Wilson, Principal Planner, gwilson@hopkintonma.gov, 18 Main St., Hopkinton, MA 01748 by 5:00 PM on August 21, 2018. Letters of interest should note the position that is being applied for.
