ZONING ADVISORY COMMITTEE VACANCIES

The Planning Board is seeking residents interested in serving on the Zoning Advisory Committee (ZAC) in varying capacities as outlined below. The purpose of the ZAC is to review and develop proposals for zoning bylaw and zoning map amendments, and to make recommendations to the Planning Board in preparation for Annual Town Meeting. The Board is looking for residents committed to addressing various zoning related topics in depth, and committed to attending regular evening meetings year round.

The following positions on the Zoning Advisory Committee are open and available. All appointees must be a resident of Hopkinton.

- One at large member to serve a two year term
- One at large member to serve a one year term
- 5 non-voting associate members to serve a one year term
- One member from the Board of Appeals to serve a one year term

The Planning Board is looking forward to appointing an energized and diverse field of applicants that may be new to government or new to Hopkinton and also those with deep ties to the community, as well as those representing varied parts of Town and different demographic constituency groups. Appointments will be made at the Planning Board meeting on September 17, 2018 and applicants are highly encouraged to attend.

Those interested in applying should send a letter of interest to Georgia Wilson, Principal Planner, gwilson@hopkintonma.gov, 18 Main St., Hopkinton, MA 01748 by 5:00 PM on September 11, 2018. Letters of interest should note the position that is being applied for.

For more information, please call Georgia Wilson at 508-497-9745.
